

Attention Juniors

The Counseling Center is sponsoring a series of College Planning Workshops to assist you and your family with the College Application Process. The workshops are about 1 hour long and cover each part of the college application process in detail. Early and knowledgeable college planning will reduce stress and ensure your success of getting into the right college for you.

Make an Investment in Your Future

Attend the College Planning Workshop Series

College Planning Workshop

Series

Session III, Tuesday, March 23, 2009

High School Auditorium

Session III

The Application Process

The College Essay

Session IV

The College Interview

Preparing Your High School Activity Sheet for College

Wrapping it Up

 Parents will be notified by the Automated Phone System of time and date